

OMNI Institute Research Award

2013 - Kaya Colin, Sara Karcich, Julia McKinnon, and Mirra Roske for their paper, "Evaluation of the Adam's Camp Early Start Parent Support Program" and Jenna Brill, Jocelyn Durkay, and Timothy Ridley for their paper, "What do MDLOs (MultiDisciplinary Law Offices) Look Like and How Do They Function?"

2012 - Kristi Roybal for her paper, "Social Work and the Environment: Exploring Social Work Educator and Student Readiness for the Integration of Environmental Content into the Social Work Curriculum"

2011 - Renea Nillson for her paper, "Program evaluation: The Children's Hospital Eating Disorder Unit"

2010 - Jacoba Rock for her paper titled "Restorative Practices and the 'Gatekeepers' of Colorado Juvenile Correctional Facilities"

2009 - Jennifer Boggs' paper "A Program Evaluation of the Aspen Hollow Young Ranchers Program"

2008 - Rachel Dolnick's paper "Social Support-Focused Interventions in Inpatient Psychiatry: a Program Evaluation"

2007 - Michelle Brunner's paper "Exploring the Social-Emotional Functioning of Young Children in Families Who Have Experienced Homelessness"

2006 - DeAnna Heimsoth's paper "Transracial Adoption in China: Expatriates living in China with adopted Chinese children"

2005 - Molly Calhoun's paper "Holistic Personal Empowerment through Community Organizing: A Qualitative Research Study of Leaders within Metro Organizations for People"

2004 - Kori Shaiman Krichiver's paper "A School-Based Mentoring Program: the Effect on Student Feelings About School Climate"

